- 25X1 1. The Dalmatian harbors are being improved under urgent orders from the Yugoslav Government. New equipment is being installed at Ploce, Rijeka, Split, Sibenik and Pulj. Ninety small harbors in the Croat Littoral will also be placed in better condition. Thus far, 1.5 million dinars have been appropriated for the work. The objective is to raise the transport capacity of the harbors to 2,600,000 tons a year.
2. Considerable quantities of war materials are being stored in the Dalmatian areas of Split and Sibenik. Most of these supplies come from the eastern areas. The Government has been systematically moving such stocks westward for a period of four months. At Sibenik and Split the munitions are repacked in new cases and carried to the smaller Adriatic islands. The coastal defenses in this area are being improved.
3. Youth groups are repairing the militarily important road between Jablanica and Konjic.
4. On 7 June 1952, the KNOJ border guards captured five Albanian Cominformists on Pastrik Malji Mountain. The Albanians were in uniform and armed with automatic weapons. One of the Albanians was killed.
5. The communications company of 5 Krajiska Division is now in Bjelovar. Units of this division are also reported as being in Cazma and Narta.
6. A training regiment, attached administratively to 14 Division, is in Krizevci.
7. An infantry battalion of 41 Infantry Regiment is stationed at Jesenice. The staff of this regiment is at Mojstrana. The commanding officer of 41 Regiment is Major Rade Seekic, and the political commissar is Branko Belic. The regimental reconnaissance company is in the village of Dovje. The company commander is Lieutenant Blagoje Grulic and the political commissar is First
